We are happy that Ian saved space in his busy March schedule for us. He will be telling Irish stories and singing tunes from Ireland. Ian grew up in Belfast, Northern Ireland. He will tell you about his childhood in Belfast and how he has ended up in Wisconsin.
FUN AND FREE!

Bucky Badger Contest :

We have hidden a Bucky Badger somewhere in this newsletter. If you have the patience to hunt for it, and are lucky enough to find it, drop a note in the box in the office. Include your name, phone number and where the logo was located. We will have a random drawing of all correct entries to win a free lunch card to use for senior dining at Germantown Senior Center. Please submit your entries by the 9th of each month.

In FEBRUARY Bucky was found on page 6 behind the flower photo The winner : Henni Bartel

The Shamrock— why is it a symbol of Ireland?

“It’s a national emblem,” says Mike Cronin, a historian, professor and the academic director of Boston College’s program in Dublin.

The three-leaf clover, a type of trefoil plant, has been considered the unofficial national flower of Ireland for centuries. Irish legend says that Saint Patrick used the shamrock as an educational symbol to explain the Holy Trinity to nonbelievers as he converted the Irish to Christianity in the fourth century. This folklore solidified in the public conscience in the centuries after Patrick’s death (which is presumed to have happened on March 17). Around the 17th century, Cronin says, the shamrock’s importance began to converge with religious celebration of the saint’s feast day: Those living in poverty still wanted to look nice at church, and luckily for them, an appropriate adornment was growing on the ground outside their homes.

Whether you are Irish or not, celebrate Spring, the turnin’ of the green.

Cead Mile’ Failte! That means 100,000 welcomes.
