Rules!

Senior Citizens

We all have different personalities and behaviors. It is what makes us who we are! In a large group of people sometimes our unique qualities will clash with one another. At the Davison-Richfield Area Activity Center everyone is expected to treat each other with respect. Keep hurtful opinions to yourself. When confronted with inappropriate behavior please bring it to the attention of the staff to be dealt with. We have a beautiful facility and wonderful people attending. When everyone works together and respects each other we maintain this beautiful quality.
